

Shirland and Higham Parish Council

Health and Safety Policy

This policy was last updated on 17 June 2019

Introduction

1. Shirland and Higham Parish Council recognises its responsibilities as an employer for providing a safe and healthy environment for all its employees, contractors, voluntary helpers and others who may be affected by the activities of the Council.
2. The Council will make every effort to meet its responsibilities under the Health and Safety at Work Act 1974 and will have regard to health and safety legislation, approved Codes of Practice, Guidance Notes and other relevant information issued by the Health and Safety Executive.
3. An up-to-date copy of this Policy shall be maintained on Shirland and Higham Parish Council's website.

Purpose

1. The purpose of this Policy is to ensure that Shirland and Higham Parish Council provides, as far as is reasonably practicable:
 - A safe place to work and a safe working environment
 - Sufficient information, instruction and training for employees, contractors and voluntary helpers to carry out their work safely
 - Care and attention to health, safety and welfare of employees, contractors, voluntary helpers and members of the public who may be affected by the Council's activities

Responsibilities

The ultimate responsibility for health and safety rests with the Councillors of Shirland and Higham Parish Council. Day to day responsibility for implementation is delegated to the Clerk. However, all employees have responsibility for health and safety matters during their day to day duties.

Responsibilities of the Clerk

The Clerk will:

- Keep informed of relevant Health and Safety Policy legislation and inform the Council accordingly.
- Ensure sufficient information, instruction, training and supervision to enable all employees to identify and avoid hazards.

- Ensure that regular risk assessments are carried out where required.
- Maintain a record of risk assessments.
- Make effective arrangements to ensure that contractors or voluntary helpers working for the Council comply with all reasonable health and safety at work requirements.
- Maintain a central record of notified accidents.
- Ensure that the workplace and equipment is subjected to regular health and safety checks.
- When an accident or hazardous incident occurs take immediate action to prevent a recurrence or further accident and to complete the necessary accident reporting procedure.
- Any health and safety issues that cannot be addressed adequately should be referred to the Chair of the Parish Council or if he/she is unavailable to the Vice Chair.

Responsibilities of Councillors, employees, contractors and voluntary helpers

Councillors, employees, contractors and voluntary helpers will:

- Cooperate fully with the aims and requirements of the Health and Safety at Work Policy and comply with Codes of Practice or work instructions for health and safety.
- Familiarise themselves and ask for advice (where considered necessary) in relation to health and safety instructions.
- Take reasonable care of their own health and safety, use appropriate personal protective clothing and, where appropriate, ensure the appropriate First Aid materials are available.
- Take reasonable care for the health and safety of other people who may be affected by their activities.
- Not intentionally interfere with or remove safety guards, safety devices or other equipment provided for health and safety.
- Not misuse any plant, equipment, tools or materials so as to cause risks to health and safety.
- Report hazards and defects to the Clerk immediately. If reports are made verbally, they should be followed up by a written report confirming the nature of the problem, its severity and any recommendation for action.
- Report any accidents or hazardous incidents to the Clerk immediately or as soon as is reasonably practicable and to assist with the investigation of such.

Policy Review

Shirland and Higham Parish Council will review this Policy as is necessary and appropriate, and at a minimum on an annual basis.
